Re: FIA Driver Categorisation Reminder

As a reminder, for any driver holding a FIA Driver rating, or participating in any IMSA series that requires a Driver to hold a FIA driver rating, any applications to the FIA regarding driver ratings for 2024 are due no later than Thursday, August 31, 2023 on the FIA Driver Categorisation portal, starting at: <https://www.fia.com/fia-driver-categorisation>

IMSA recommends reading and familiarizing yourself with the actual content of the FIA Driver Categorisation regulations before directing any additional questions to IMSA via Paul Walter, Senior Director, Racing Operations, pwalter@imsa.com.

A copy of the regulations, highlighting the updated sections, is available on the FIA platform here: https://www.fia.com/sites/default/files/marked-up_wmsc_29_june_driver_categorisation_regulations_2023_2.pdf

The 10-member FIA Categorisation Committee meets in late September to consider driver applications, as well as annual driver performance reviews, and publishes a provisional list of 2024 ratings by mid-November. The definitive 2024 list is expected December 1st.
